OUR GOAL

We've Only Just Begun . . .

On Saturday, May 2, 1981, graduation ceremonies were held in Kimbel Gymnasium as parents, spouses, children and friends looked on while Associate in Nursing, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Arts, and Master of Education degrees were conferred. Ramon Schwartz, South Carolina Speaker of the House of Representatives, was the keynote speaker.

1. Chancellor Dr. Singleton, Ramon Schwartz, and USC President, Dr. Holderman speak at the Commencement exercises.
2. Dr. Singleton gives Mark Singleton his Degree.
3. Elma Harrelson gets her degree from Dr. Singleton.
4. Members of the 1981 graduating class wait in line.

USC Fine Arts Festival

The Fourth annual USC Spring Arts Festival was held on the Coastal campus. Performances were held in all areas of the Arts, including folk and square dancing, brass ensemble, drama, batik, raku pottery making, media arts, culinery, watercolor and oil painting, and music. A highlight that was not a part of the Festival was the appearance of William Windom in his award-winning portrayal of Thurber. The finale of the festival was a fun run in which over 100 runners participated.

1. Rod Gragg interviews William Windom.
2. Martha Thomas shows how to do Raku pottery.
3. The Jazz Band from USC-Columbia performs at the festival.
4. Demonstrating Raku pottery firing was one of the highlights of the festival.

Wheelwright Auditorium Is Dedicated

On Saturday, June 14, 1981, the Wheelwright Auditorium was dedicated. The money for the Auditorium came from a challenge grant from Mrs. Maude Kimbel as a memorial to her parents. After a short introduction of guests and a standing ovation for Mrs. Kimbel, a short recital was given by former and present faculty and students of Coastal Carolina College.

1. Maude Kimbel is applauded at the Wheelwright dedication.
2. The plaque to Mrs. Kimbel's parents is unveiled.
3. The newest addition to the Coastal Campus — Wheelwright Auditorium.

ATHENEUM

The Atheneum Staff was organized late in the year. The big question was, "Is there going to be an Atheneum?" Well, you're looking at it! The Atheneum is an organization at Coastal that puts together a yearbook full of memories. Connie Sims, a freshman, was assigned the position of editor in September. From there, she organized a staff mainly made up of freshmen. Thanks to the entire staff, the Atheneum became a reality. The deadlines always came too soon, but everyone stayed up all hours of the night (and morning) to meet them. Much of the recognition goes to Scott Johnson who put up with a crew of inexperienced freshmen. Through all the hard work, there were also some unbelievable good times. The staff always kept their spirits high and their laughter rolling. The Atheneum Staff is a group of students who are always willing to work and learn from their mistakes. REMEMBER, WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN!

Editor, Connie Sims, discusses ATHENEUM business on the telephone as she rests her tired feet.

Chad George, head photographer, looks over the charts in the darkroom before he begins developing.

Mike Snide, business manager, looks over the Atheneum budget.

CHANTICLEER

The Chanticleer is the informative campus newspaper that has been printed every other Wednesday during the past year. It reports the major academic and extracurricular activities that have occurred at Coastal Carolina College, as well as informing students of the major upcoming events. A highlight of the year was two Lampoon sections and the killing of A.K.

IN MEMORIAM HOWARD L. BROWN

We are all grieved that
Howard has gone away
For we wanted him to live and stay
With us in his life
where he spread his joy everywhere
Because we never showed him
how much we really did care
Howard did nothing but please all of us in his special way
He was not just friendly, but all of these — joyful, kind, loving, and sweet
He was a delightful person to meet!
We will miss his big smile,
his kind face
But we can all be certain
he went to a beautiful, peaceful place
Where life is so wonderful that no one can imagine
How happy and content he is for Howard's death is not his end.

A Coastal Carolina Student is . . .

. . . The most important person on the campus. Without students there would be no need for the institution.

. . . Not a cold enrollment statistic but a flesh and blood human being with feelings and emotions like our own.

. . . Not someone to be tolerated so that we can do our thing. They are our thing.

. . . Not dependent on us. Rather, we are dependent on them.

. . . Not an interruption of our work, but the purpose of it. We are not doing them a favor by seeing them. They are doing us a favor by giving us the opportunity to do so.

TWO OF THE MOST IMPORTANT BOOKS YOU'LL EVER NEED.

The big one prepares you for the future. It's our savings passbook.

The pocket-sized one is our checkbook. For day-to-day matters, it's easier and safer to carry than a lot of tempting cash.

Both books are simple to obtain. Just stop by your local SCN office.

Get ready for some interesting reading in the years ahead.

In Memoriam

Dr. Rheinhold Engelmayer

Coastal Carolina College suffered a heartfelt loss this year due to the death of Dr. Rheinhold Engelmayer. He died in the People's Republic of China doing what he liked best, research and educational study.

Dr. Engelmayer was the most influential person in many people's education, including my own. His enthusiasm and knowledge of his subject somehow seemed to rub off and increase one's desire for outside learning. He was one of those rare teachers who was genuinely concerned with the education of his students, some examples being the many long distance field trips he led as well as the extensive field research he had directed.

A native of Austria, Dr. Engelmayer came to Coastal in 1970. He earned a Ph.D. from Leopold Franzens University in Austria, and the equivalent of a masters degree from the University of Vienna. Prior to joining the Coastal faculty he taught Pre-history at the University of Tuebingen in West Germany. He was an assistant director and curator of the museum of natural history in Vienna, Austria. Dr. Engelmayer also served as a field archeologist for the United Nations in Egypt.

He was the first archeologist to engage in long term excavation of pre-Columbian Indian sites in this area and was known for work; in addition he was a popular speaker.

Dr. Engelmayer had conducted archeological and physical anthropological research in Central and Eastern Europe, the Mediterranean area, the Near East, North Africa, the U.S., and Latin America.

He was exceptionally well thought of and respected by his professional colleagues and students alike. The community will miss Dr. Engelmayer.

We've Only Just Begun

We've only just begun to live
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck

And we're on our way
Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose

We start out walking and learn to run.
And yes, we've just begun.
Sharing horizons that are new to us.

Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day to day together.

And when the evening comes,
We smile, so much of life ahead
We'll find a place where

There's room to grow,
And yes, we've just begun to live.
We've only just begun to live.

We've Only Just Begun

Dear Friends,

It's an early Saturday morning and the last deadline has to be at the post office before twelve o'clock noon. I knew the time was coming, and sooner or later I would have to sit down and type this letter. I feel relieved that the ATHENEUM is finally finished but I am sad that it all had to end so quickly. Being a Freshman, I never dreamed of meeting so many new people. There are so many wonderful people here at Coastal who have helped me this year.

I want to first thank all the students who have made the ATHENEUM a reality. If not for you there would be no reason for a yearbook. You have all been so kind and supportive. I want to thank the entire ATHENEUM staff for a job well done. Thank you Trish for all your efforts and willingness. The Faculty section looks great considering it was the first section due. Not only were you a hard worker but your friendship will never be forgotten. Best of Luck next year, you're gonna' need it! Becky, thanks for all your hard work on the Student Life Section. You have got more patience for drawing little blocks than I ever will. Hopefully I'll be seeing you next year! Carolina, here we come! Melinda, even though you did not know what in the world a quad-pak was, you went all out and did a wonderful job. (That is when you weren't busy looking at my calendar and the men's basketball pictures!) Thanks for everything and good luck next year. Mike, I couldn't have chosen a better business manager, no wonder you have so much money! You will never know how much I appreciate all your hard work. Chad, I haven't forgotten you. Remember the endless nights in the darkroom? I'm sorry we never got our own darkroom. I guess things just fell through. A special thanks to Alex, Robin, Lisa, Angela, Jennifer, Teresa, and Terry. Teresa, thanks for all the rides. Last but not least, thank you Scott for always being there to answer all those monotonous questions. I couldn't have asked for a better advisor.

Now that I'm finished sending out all my gratitudes to the staff, I must now thank some other equally important people. I want to thank the entire Student Development Division for all their help. Thanks, Pat, Debbie, and Jan for all your time. A big Thank You to Dr. Squatriglia who helped me with more than yearbook problems. You deserve a blue ribbon! Thanks SGA, Campus Union, ARCHARIOS, and the CHANTICLEER for giving me the opportunity to work with all of you. Thanks Karen for all the laughs and good times. Thanks Todd, Bill, and Eddie for all your help with pictures. The last person I would like to recognize is Allan Kujala. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, and THANK YOU! (Is that enough?)

There aren't enough Thank You's to express my deepest appreciation.

It has been a real experience getting to know you. We were so BAD! It was great having our offices next to one another. We'll have to do it again some day. I wish you the best of luck in everything and please try to be good! Again, let me thank you, the Student Body for a wonderful year! I hope you all will treasure this book for it holds 152 pages of memories that I will always cherish. I am proud to have been a part of Coastal Carolina College. Thank You my fellow students, friends, clubs, teachers, staff, and family for giving me the opportunity to share, care, love, and serve as your editor for a year worth remembering.

Sincerely Yours,

Connie Sims
1981-82 ATHENEUM Editor
